PARRY FINS MARRIED.—We are apprised, through an advance copy of the N. Y. Ledger for this week, of the marriage on Saturday last of the fair-minded PARRY FINN (Mrs. SARAH PAYTON ELDRIDGE) to Mr. JAMES FANTON of this city.

MILITARY.—We copy the following from the Courrier des Etats-Unis of yesterday:

"The Havana papers announce the arrival of Miles Rachel in their city, but do not inform us when she will be able to commence acting. The health of the illustrious artiste has excited so lively an interest among the New-Yorkers that we will report the substance of her numerous friends in publishing the following extract taken from a private letter written by Miles Rachel herself:

"I remained some time at Charleston, in order that the sudden change of climate might not affect me. I rested and convalesced until the 11th o'clock the following morning.

The Petit Jury were then impaneled, but no business of importance was transacted.

Maximilian Train was tried for stealing some old rose, but was acquited.

The Court then adjourned for the day.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, Jan. 5, at the residence of A. McIntyre, Esq., Germania, N.Y., Rev. J. L. MATTHEW, CHURCH OF CHRIST, ABBOTT, son of Madam Wm. Abbott, of Johnston, N. Y., and ANNE D. WELLS, daughter of Dr. Samuel Abbott.

CLARE—DONALDSON.—On Monday, Jan. 7, at the Church of the Ascension, by the Rev. Dr. Bedell, W.M. KEATING CLARE to ELIZABETH, eldest daughter of Mr. William Donaldson, all of this city.

"I am excellently situated here in Havana as regards my health. My house is pleasant, a delightful, and the steady heat, tempestuous as it is by a fresh and strengthening breeze, seems both to repose and refresh me. This is the climate I needed.

Nevertheless the day for my debut is far from being fixed upon. I am not certain what many months of rest will be necessary. However it may be, I am resigned, for I wish to live, even though I never again act in tragedy."

"The great artist here views everything in the world light. Fortunately the physicians all agree that there is nothing actually dangerous in her state. No symptom indicates that it will be a question of more than a temporary repose, the duration of which, it is hoped, this delightful tropical climate will abridge.

"We will add that notwithstanding the uncertainty of her appearance on the stage, Miles Rachel has the prospect of a brilliant triumph before her in the Island of Cuba. On the 23d December the subscriptions for the first twelve representations amounted to more than $2,000."

The Managers of the Colored Orphan Asylum gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $721.13, being the amount of a fair recently got up by some of the colored friends of the institution.

THE LATE BURGLARY AND HEAVY ROBBERY IN CHATHAM SQUARE.—Some weeks ago, it will be remembered, the jewelry store of Lyon & Cohen, No. 165 Chatham square, was entered by burglars and robbed of goods to the amount of nearly $6,000. Since that time the police of the Sixth and other wards have been endeavoring to discover the burglar, and recently a German woman named Hannah Jacobs, living at No. 215 Division street, admitted that she had some knowledge of the transaction. She was brought before Justice Connolly and made affidavit that on or about the 25th of December, Jas. Greenblatt, who was in the room, then stated that his brother Abraham made the keys to enter the place in question. The witness further says that Heniman took the jewelry away from his wife and gave it to Mrs. Greenblatt, but got hold of it again and sold it to Meyer Rosenthal of No. 6 Mott street, for $20. She further states that Harris Greenblatt is a thief by profession, and follows stealing for a living, and, further, that Heniman's wife told her that Heniman had made $500 by the burglary, having received that amount as his share of the proceeds. Upon this affidavit warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused, and they were captured and locked up. Search warrants were also issued with a view of recovering the property.

THE LATE HOMICIDE—EXAMINATION OF THE ACCUSED.—Maria Kane, charged with stabbings William Ruff at the Lager-beer saloon No. 231, William street, on New-Year's eve, was yesterday examined by Conner Gorham, and stated that he was not guilty, and that if he did anything it was done in self-defense. He is a native of Germany, twenty-two years of age, a shoemaker by trade, and resides at No. 11 Thomas street. At the close of his examination the prisoner was recommended to the Courts to await the action of the Grand Jury.
